

19th Spring Lebanese Congress of Surgery
“New Challenges in General Surgery Practice”
 3&4 June 2016

Abstract Form

All accepted abstracts, correctly written and presented according to the following criteria will be published in an indexed journal

These criteria apply to all types of interventions. Please indicate the type of intervention that you suggest	Lecture
	Free Oral Communication
	Poster
	Video Film
Please indicate the topic to which your intervention applies	Trauma
	Bariatric Surgery
	Surgical Oncology
	Inflammatory Bowel & Diverticular Diseases
	Benign Ano-Rectal Disease
	Hepatobiliary and Pancreatic Surgery

Language Used	English
Abstract Size	A Maximum of 400 words
Font Type	Times New Roman n° 12
Paragraph Type	One Single Interline

TITLE in Capital Letters
Speaker's Name Underlined
Name of the Institution to which the first author is affiliated
Email address of the main speaker

The abstract, written on an A4 page, should include the following	Objective of the Study: 1 or 2 sentences summarizing the purpose of the communication and the aim of the study
	Material & Method: The size of the population or the sample should be indicated, as well as the condition of inclusion. The design of the study should be described in a comprehensive way
	Results: The major observed results of the study should be summarized without any interpretation
	Discussion & Conclusion: Few sentences should summarize the principal concepts and ideas resulting from the study
	Key-Words: 1 or more key-word should be chosen from the Index Medicus to apply to the proposed